

WHY

DO YOUNG PIANISTS
NEED TO STUDY WITH THIS MAN?

Because few people in the world can claim to be both an active concerto artist with Columbia Artist Management and an active contributing editor to Henle Urtext Editions. Based in London, Andreas Boyde, is a unique world-class performer and scholar who will serve as guest clinician at Valor Summer Conservatory.

It is still possible to make a late application for the summer term, June 12 - August 12, 2011. From high school to post-graduate school, serious pianists can advance their talents for the Glory of God in a beautiful Christian environment. For details, please email info@valorsummerconservatory.org.
